

Corporate Member application form

This category of membership is suitable for corporate organisations that have a commercial, cultural or social interest in architecture. Government authorities, cultural institutions and realtors will all have aspects of this interest, and of course firms of architects, designers, planners or builders will have this as a core part of their business.

The AAA is led by people of action. Join the action by becoming a corporate member and if you do that now, you can take advantage of our member benefits:

- 25% off the ticketed price for four (4) tickets to any Black talk
- Free admission for four (4) tickets to walking tours
- Reduced admission for four (4) people to most tours
- Corporate member staff will receive 25% off individual membership fees
- Regular updates on AAA activities
- The opportunity to become involved in promotional activities (eg including buildings in tours)
